

Seattle Goes South

Walt & Teresa Huntsman

Original Music & Covers

Seattle Goes South is a husband / wife duo featuring long-time singer-songwriter Walt Huntsman on lead vocals, harmonica, and percussion and Teresa Huntsman on guitar and background vocals. We have performed live music, both originals and covers, in the Boise area since 2016.

- How did we get our name? Well, Seattle-born Walt moved to Alabama over 30 years ago, where he met Teresa. That kind of says it all!
- Who are our influences? We love James Taylor, Tom Petty, Bob Seger, John Prine, and many others.
- What makes us unique? Well, usually the guy plays guitar and the girl sings, not the other way around.
- How many songs has Walt written? Too many to count! Not hundreds but thousands.
- How many original songs do we perform live? Last count about 150!
- How many songs have we released? We released two CDs in 2015 and 2018 under Walt's name with 28 total songs. Plus, as of August 2026, we have released 31 singles and one CD under our established band name, Seattle Goes South.
